

Learning about Food

Eiken 2
2022①A

These days, many people are paying more attention to food safety. Because of this, food companies around Japan are trying to let customers know more about their products. Many of these companies use their websites to provide information about how food is produced. Customers check such information, and by doing so they learn more about the food products they purchase.

Your story should begin with this sentence

One day, Miki was talking to her father in the kitchen.
