

Tourist Information Centers

There are many tourist information centers around Japan. These centers have a variety of information about local tourist spots. Today, many tourist information centers offer guidebooks in different languages, and in this way they help foreign visitors to find tourist spots easily. These centers will play a more important role in the future.

A

B

Questions

No.1 According to the passage, how do many tourist information centers help foreign visitors to find tourist spots easily?

→ By offering guidebooks in different languages.

No.2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.

→ A woman is fishing. / A boy is picking up a book. / A man is watering flowers.
Two girls are waving. / A man is taking a picture.

No.3 Now, look at the woman in Picture B. Please describe the situation.

→ She can't answer the smartphone because she's carrying many things.

Now, Mr. / Mrs. _____, please turn over the card and put it down.

No.4 Do you think traveling by train is better than traveling by car?

Yes. → Why?

→ Traveling by train is safer than traveling by car. Also, it's easy to relax on a train.

No. → Why not?

→ People can go to places more freely by car. Also, they can travel with a lot of things.

No.5 Today in Japan, some students study English and another foreign language.

Are you interested in studying another foreign language?

Yes. → Please tell me more.

→ I've been thinking of studying Korean these days. I like watching Korean dramas.

No. → Why not?

→ Learning another foreign language takes a lot of time. I want to focus on English first.